Fremont Oktoberfest Animal House Pre-Party

*“We gotta do something...you know what we are going to do? Toga Party!”
at the Fremont Outdoor Cinema*

SEATTLE (Aug. 26, 2009) - Fremont Oktoberfest celebrates the end of summer with a pre-party National Lampoon's style. The Fremont Outdoor Movies hosts the Fremont Oktoberfest pre-party with an Animal House Toga Party closing the outdoor movie season, Saturday, September 12th at dusk.

Watch as the hard partying, beer guzzling Delta's take on the Omega's and administration at Faber College in the 1978 classic comedy. “It's the perfect outdoor movie to hoot and hollar at while drinking a beer outdoors in Fremont,” says Fremont Outdoor Movie Coordinator Ryan Reiter. “We salute great flicks that compliment our audience and weekly theme. We can't think of a better way to kick off the Fremont Oktoberfest than to get in the drinking spirit and relive your glory days.”

While you're waiting for the movie to start, join in the pre-show games and activities that keep with the fraternity and Oktoberfest themes. From toga style photo sessions to college party games, you'll be pumped and ready to go by the time the movie starts at dusk. Winners of the games and photo contest are given prizes that include a chance to win tickets to the Fremont Oktoberfest. You can also drink along with your favorite big screen fraternity mates with the extended beer garden. “The enduring appeal that makes Animal House popular is the myth that more beer makes stupidity more heroic,” says Reiter. “It may not, but it certainly makes it more enjoyable.”

The Fremont Outdoor Movie Theater is located in the lot at the corner of North 35th Street and Phinney Avenue North. Find that same spot one week later and you'll be at the center of the beer universe when Fremont Oktoberfest kicks off at 5 p.m., September 18th. The Animal House viewing is for those 21+ only. Please remember to bring your ID.
